

The Triclops have traveled over a million light years to come kick our ass.

Sorry, but we have other plans!!

Lock and Load! You're the commander of a division of battle-proven M1A1 Abrams tanks. Along with you are a ragtag bunch of humans with a lethal arsenal of speedy Merkvas and hard hitting M-109s!

Perhaps you'd like to see what it's like to pilot a Triclops 2 leg walker, a 4 leg spider walker, or an anti-gravity hovercraft as you extinguish the human scum that stands in your way!

Whichever side you choose, you'll have all the firepower you'll need to eradicate the enemy, if you have the will to succeed. Your team will decide the fate of the earth!

It's do or die time in Alien Front, Online!

Features Include:

- For the first time ever, players can compete from the arcade or from home, with and against other players in either location! Up to 4 vs. 4 networked real-time game play!
- Network games require a 56K modem only! No DSL, ISDN or other high-speed data transfer device is needed. If you've got a spare phone line, you can be on line instantly!
- Players can choose to be the Army or the Alien, each offering its own unique game-play experience.
- Massive power-ups for incredible firepower.
- For the Army there's Rockets, Guided Missiles, Grenades and even Tactical Nukes!
- For the Aliens there are Gravity Balls, Hover Missiles and many other exotic energy-based weapons that defy description!
- Players can team up against other teams during the same game!
- Game comes equipped with its own headset that lets players talk to one another! You can help teammates or taunt your enemies!
- Players create their own "Handle" which can be used in the arcade or at home as a special Alien Front Online web identity! Play the arcade version to unlock special secrets and bonuses in the home version. Chat online with other players, form teams, play in on-line tournaments, and compete for special Sega prizes!
