BURIKI ONE will boost profits and playing excitement in any arcade.

BURIKI ONE — Four Major Pointers for Battle

Buriki One has a new game system! Input the following information and FIGHT!!!

Point 1 Vitality Gauge

This gauge shows a contestant's energy. As energy decreases, the wave meter gets smaller and the color of the gauge changes from blue to green to yellow to orange to red. When the gauge turns orange, the meter begins to flash. And watch out! When the gauge begins to flash red, the contestant is one poke away from losing.

Point 2 Power Balance Gauge

The arrow-shaped gauge that appears below the contestant's feet shows the condition of his power level and center of gravity. Contestants with long gauges have high power levels and are hard to knock down; conversely contestants with short gauges have low power levels and are easy to toss around. The position for attacking a contestant at his center of gravity is displayed by the "mark" of the gauge in real time at the front and back of the contestant.

Point 3 Lock Gauge

This gauge appears in the center of the screen when players enter or are locked in a pin down from a tackle and body toss, etc. The top arrow shows the offensive side's power and the bottom arrow shows the defensive side's power. When the gauge of both players begins to decrease the instant players enter a pin down, or the offensive side's power value disappears, the pin down is broken.

Point 4 Victory

A match's victory is decided by either a knock out, forfeit, or judgment.

Knock Out • When the contestant with a flashing red Vitality Gauge is hit with any move other than a weak attack.

Forfeit • When the Vitality Gauge of the contestant pinned down flashes red and is hit in this condition with an attack in a fixed time.

Judgment • When the match is not settled before time runs out.

Opening Declaration

What is the strongest method of combat?

Who is the mightiest fighter?

The time has finally come to settle this never-ending dispute.

Spring 1999. The mightiest fighter of the 20th century will be decided.

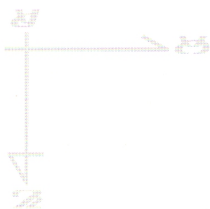

SNK announces the opening of Buriki One-World Grapple Tournament '99 in Tokyo, the battle royale of fighting styles.

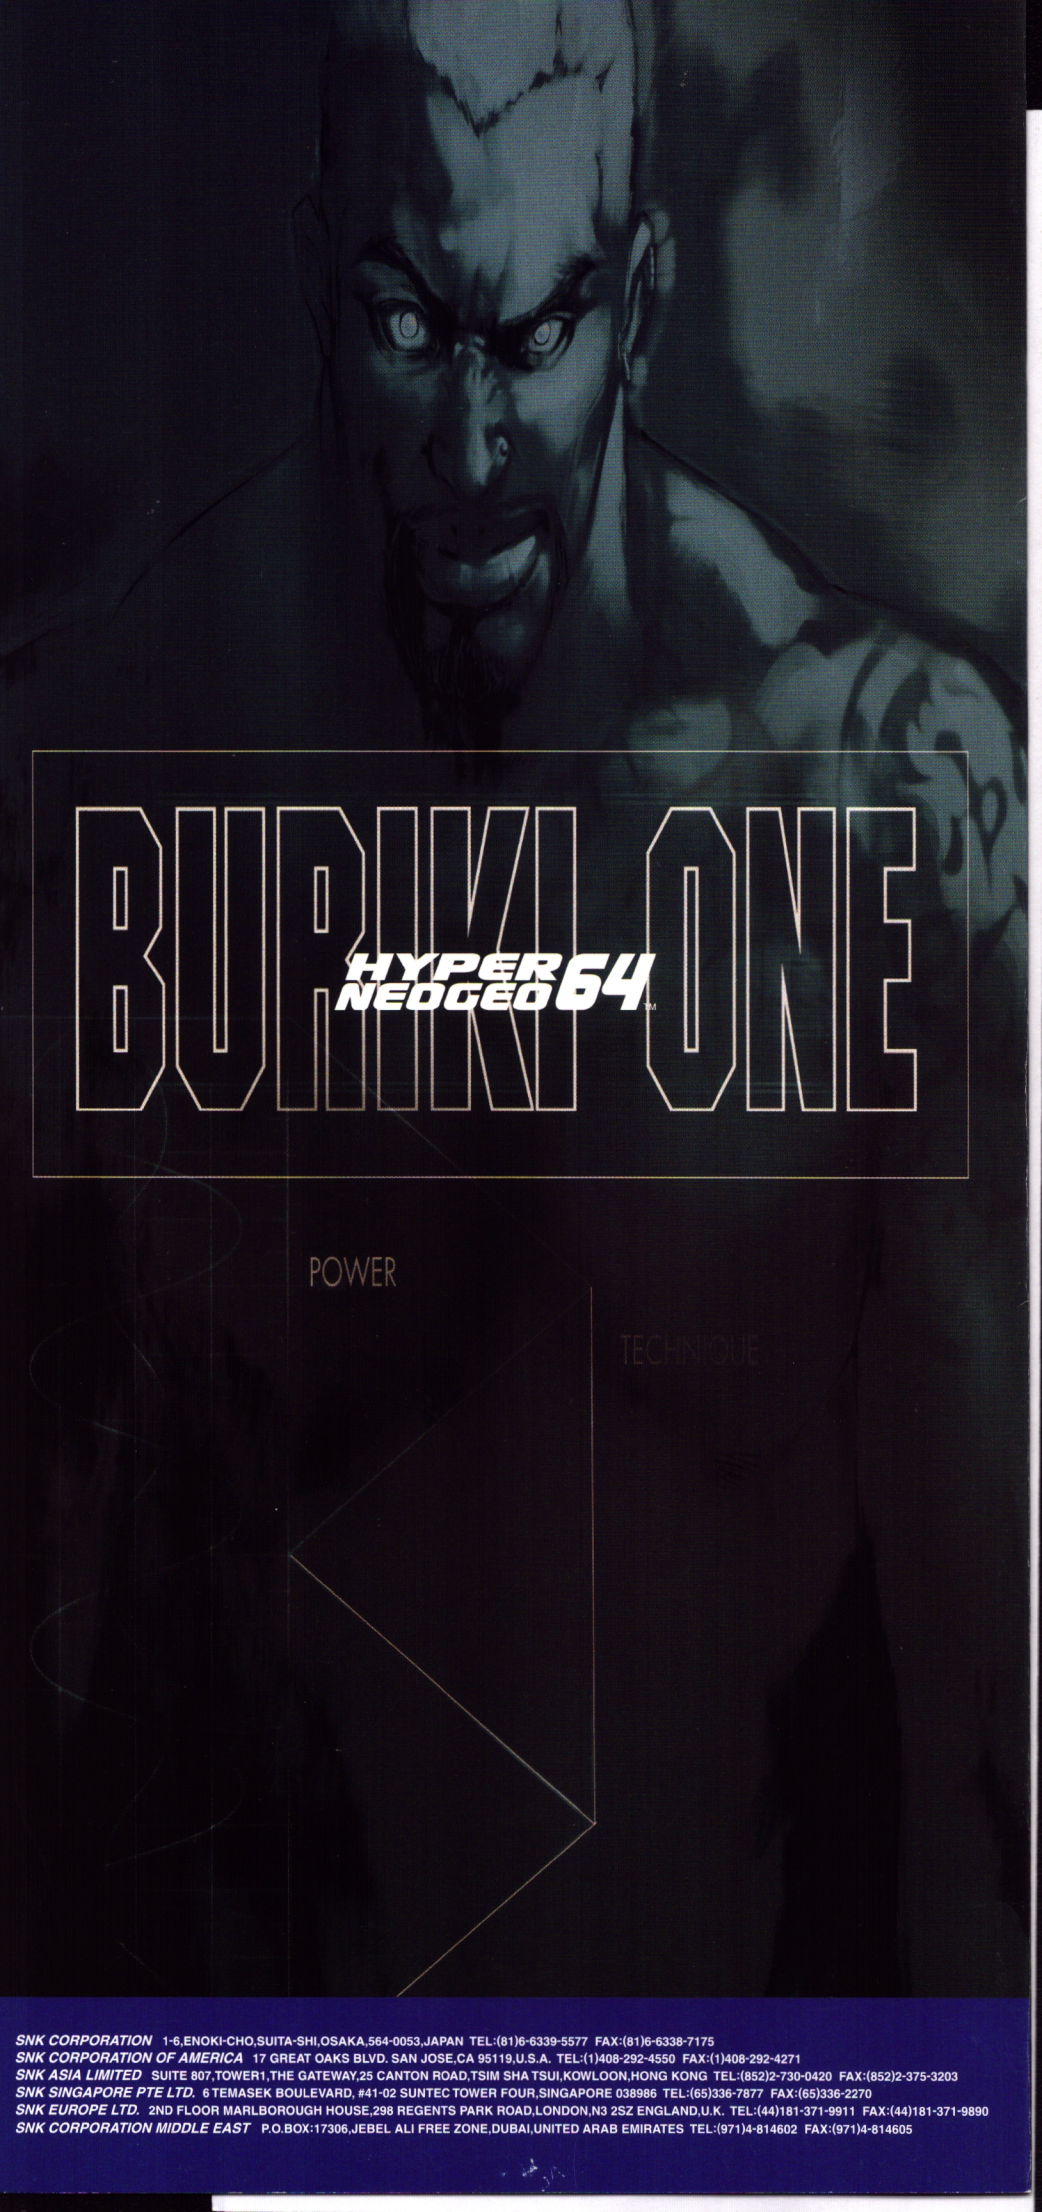

Matches are decided by a single fall. As for rules on elbowing, backhand slaps, head butts, and kneeing... there are none! So, any dirty tricks you've mastered are yours to unleash. Contestants must win a total of 8 matches, passing through the preliminary and finals leagues within a single day.

In addition to the strength of a tempered body, only those furnished with the stamina and self-discipline can obtain the blessings and laurels from the Goddess of Victory. This is truly the biggest battle royale blowout for the fin de siecle.

A final declaration: Who's "The Mightiest"? Buriki One will decide!
